ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce JUDGE JOHN PHELPS as a candidate for Circuit Court Judge in this district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election November 5, 1895.

The New York Telegram sent out letters of inquiry to the chairmen of the Democratic and Republican state committees all over the country concerning the issues of 1896. Nearly all of them think the currency will be the principal issue and with hardly an exception the west and south are solid for free bimetalism, Republicans as well as Democrats. Chairman Jno. D. Carroll, of Kentucky, defined his position in the following ringing words: "I believe the principal issue will be the currency, am in favor of a platform declaring in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. I also think the United States is old enough, strong enough and rich enough to take independent action on this question, and need not delay it until it suits the convenience, or rather the interests of Germany, England, France or any other country, to act." His answer threw the Louisville Post into a severe attack of the rabies, but no well informed man doubts that Mr. Carroll speaks for four-fifths of the Democrats of Kentucky. Them's our sentiments.

The Murray Ledger of this week contains the formal announcement of Judge Thos. P. Cook for circuit judge and his local paper declares for him in the strongest terms, leaving Judge Linn without an organ at home and without a Democratic organ in the district, except perhaps the Cadiz paper, which will support him in the event no Trigg county man is in the race. The Ledger says Judge Cook has "the solid and unanimous endorsement of Calloway at his back" and that his friends are not friends for "revenue only" and concludes a column article with these words: "With these remarks we present Calloway's candidate to those who do not know him, and assure you that he will be endorsed by a very large majority of those who do."

And so our Democratic President has issued a goldbug manifesto, informing the country that we have come to the parting of the ways on the currency question. Well, we are ready. Kentucky will keep in the middle of the straight road the Democracy has traveled for a hundred years and stand by the money of the constitution. Grover and his gang, if they choose to do so, may take the path that leads to the Republican wilderness by the way of New York and London.

President Cleveland's goldbug manifesto was answered in a most effective manner in the daily papers of Tuesday by W. H. Harvey, of Chicago, chairman of the Bimetallic committee and author of "Coin's Financial School," the best handbook on silver ever written.

Geo. Triplett's new paper, the Sunday Post, has made its appearance at Owensboro and is well printed, bright, newsy and entertaining in all of its departments. Mr. Triplett is an old stager at the business and whatever he does in a journalistic line is done well.

The Cuban revolution is practically over. In a severe battle the first of the week the rebels were routed by the Spanish troops and Crambet was killed. Maceo, the other leader, at first reported captured, escaped to the mountains and is being closely pursued.

Sanford's plan was more manly, but not so sure or safe as Vanarsdall's. When you go a-gunning, there is nothing like a double-barreled shot gun.

We have never thought much of Senator Goebel since he refused to vote for the Christian county registration law in 1890.

Marshal Campos, Spain's greatest general, has arrived in Cuba and assumed control as Governor General.

Some idea of the pension load the country will have to carry in the ages to come can be obtained from this item that appeared in the newspapers of Wednesday: "Mrs. Mary Brown, of Knoxville, Tenn., one of the nine women drawing pensions as widows of soldiers who fought in the revolutionary war, died yesterday. When she was married she was 20 years old and Mr. Brown was 80. He has been dead fifty-one years." There are females yet to be born who will thirty years from now marry survivors of the last war for the pensions they are drawing and as in the Knoxville case live for more than fifty years as a burden to the country. When we remember that eight widows of a war that closed 114 years ago are still on the pension lists, what hope is there to hold out to the people that their pension taxes will ever become lighter until their children's children have died of old age.

The advance in the price of oil from $1 to $2.62 per barrel in a few days is a shrewd move by the Standard Oil company to crush out its only rival, a Pennsylvania company, at one blow. The new and comparatively weak company has a contract to furnish 500,000 barrels at a low price made under existing conditions months ago. The Standard has been quietly buying up all surplus stocks and having obtained control of the market and cornered all visible supplies raised the price of crude petroleum to figures that are bound to break its would-be rival. That the new company, already $750,000 to $800,000 out on its contract, will be forced to throw up its hands is almost certain. Then people who use oil will be absolutely at the mercy of Jno. D. Rockefeller.

James W. Scott, the owner of the recently consolidated Times-Herald, the greatest Democratic newspaper of the northwest, died in New York this week, where he had gone in search of health. He was still in early middle life and his life's ambition to control the greatest of American journals, was in a fair way to be realized. His death is a severe blow to the profession he adorned.

The first experience in telegraphing pictures a long distance has been successfully made, a picture being sent from Los Angeles to San Francisco. Chas. Willoughby is the inventor of the process.

DEATHS.

PENDLETON.—Edward Pendleton died at the asylum Monday, of consumption, aged 33 years. The remains were taken to Owensboro for interment.

BURKE.—Mr. T. P. Burke, of New York, whose serious illness was noted in a recent issue, died last Saturday, aged 51 years. Mr. Burke leaves no family, except a wife, who was Miss Fannie Clardy, a sister of Dr. Jno. D. Clardy. The body was brought to the old Clardy homestead in this county and buried Wednesday, Rev. A. U. Boone, of Clarksville, and Rev. S. P. Forgy conducting the services. Mr. Burke was a man of wealth, and carried life insurance policies aggregating $27,500. He was well known hereabouts, having lived in Clarksville and several years in this county.

PUTTY.—Mr. Jas. Y. Putty died in this city Wednesday, aged 67 years. He had been sick for quite a while. The remains were taken to the Antioch neighborhood for interment yesterday.

COLORED.

SOUTHALL.—Emma Southall died near Church Hill Tuesday, aged 22 years.

JOHNSON.—Paulina Johnson died near Mt. Zoar church, on the Princeton road, Saturday, aged 40 years, of consumption.

A Good Market.

Sales of tobacco this week amounted to about 200 hogsheads, with very few rejections. The market was active on medium goods, while common leaf and lugs remain firm at last week's quotations. Tobacco in good order sold as high as $11.75 and many hogsheads were disposed of at from $8 to $10. The weed is showing in much better order now, and there has been an advance of from 1c to 1½c on the better grades in consequence. Receipts are heavy and are on the increase. There is a good deal being done in the loose market also.

A Princeton Woman's Death.

PRINCETON, Ky., April 17.—Mrs. J. B. Burken, living in the outskirts of this city, dropped dead last evening. She had been milking a cow, had finished and got up when suddenly she dropped dead. Heart failure was the cause. She had always been a healthy woman.

Spring Time

Is when nearly everybody feels the need of some blood purifying strength invigorating and health producing medicine. The real merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is the reason of its wide-spread popularity. Its unequalled success is its best recommendation. The whole system is susceptible to the most good from a medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla taken at this time, and we would lay special stress upon the time and remedy, for history has it recorded that delays are dangerous. The remarkable success achieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla and the many words of praise it has received, make it worthy of your confidence. We ask you to give this medicine a fair trial.

as to Farmers.

Before buying a cultivator farmers should see the New American operate. It is simple of construction, easy to adjust and operate; light of draft and made of the best material. It is economy to buy the New American, besides being the best cultivator on the market, it is an excellent hard ground harrow and sod pulverizer. American Harrow Company is now located at Hopkinsville, Ky., and we have on hand two carloads of these combined cultivators, which we will be glad to exhibit and test to every farmer in Christian county.

G. C. KELLOGG, foreman for American Harrow Co., Detroit, Mich.

See testimonials below:

CASKY, Ky., April 8, 1895. American Harrow Co., Detroit, Mich. GENTLEMEN—I bought one of your New American cultivator and harrows, and from the test already made I believe it to be the best cultivator I ever saw, and as a harrow for hard ground nothing equals it. It is also excellent for pulverizing sod.

Yours truly,

T. L. GRAHAM.

American Harrow Co., Detroit, Mich. DEAR SIRS—Your Mr. A. L. Kellogg put up, operated and sold me one of your New American cultivator and harrows combined. Have had sixteen years experience in handling cultivators and farm implements and after a thorough test and careful examination, I am prepared to say it is the most perfect tool of the kind I have ever seen. It is well and strongly built, simple in construction, and is easily handled, and is under thorough control of the operator at all times. I am sure anyone capable of handling a team can operate one as well as the strongest man.

Respectfully,

J. B. WALKER.
